Buy A Bale is Back

Beginning in the end of October we will be kicking off our annual Buy A Bale campaign with the same competitive element as last year. We will be offering prizes to the person who "sells" the most bales in two separate categories: riders and volunteers. Every willing rider and volunteer will be given an envelope and materials that will enable them to solicit contributions for the Buy A Bale campaign. The campaign contest runs through November 30th. It's an easy way for people to make a small donation that can have an impact. Last year was our best year yet where we raised enough money to completely cover the cost of our hay bill for the winter.

Pegasus Volunteers of the Year

At the annual Volunteer Appreciation Dinner, which was held at Pegasus on Saturday, September 29th, we honored the adult and student Volunteers of the Year. The Adult Volunteer of the Year was awarded to Denise Guivien and the Student Volunteer of the Year was awarded to Jemma Teesdale. In addition, milestone years of service awards were given to: Lorry Kirk - 15 years; Glen Gawinowicz - 10 years; Ed Towarnicki, Laura Nycom, & Juliet Leshner - 5 years of service. Congratulations to all!

TROT IN THE PARK

Pegasus was delighted to have so many of its friends and supporters join us for the Trot in the Park 5K and 1 mile Fun Walk/Run on Saturday, October 6th. The sky was blue and the weather warm, as about 100 participants made their way through the trails in Pennypack Park. The overall female winner was Brittany Knowles and the overall male winner was Josh Glick. Thank you to our wonderful sponsors.

Gus' Retirement Party

Our beloved horse Gus will be retiring from Pegasus and moving on to a new retirement home in Kentucky. We are honoring him on Saturday, October 27th with a reception from 6-8 pm at Pegasus. Come and say farewell.
